American Citizens Information Night 2010

Monday, May 3, 2010

17:00 – 19:00 (doors open at 16:30)

American Embassy, Zagreb

The U.S. Embassy in Zagreb cordially invites you and your family to attend the 3rd annual American Citizens Information Night.

Ambassador James B. Foley will begin the evening's events with welcome remarks. Following this, experts from the U.S. Embassy, the Croatian government and the international community will be on hand to answer questions on issues important to American Citizens living in Croatia, such as Croatian visa and residency requirements, U.S. Federal benefits, and many others.

If you need consular services, such as notarial services or passport renewals, our staff will be available before the event. Please let us know if you plan to take advantage of this opportunity.

Guest Experts Invited:

Croatian Ministry of Interior
Croatian Ministry of Justice
Croatian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and European Integration
American Chamber of Commerce
American International School of Zagreb
Croatian-American Society
Croatian Office of Vital Statistics (Matični ured)

This event is open to all U.S. citizens residing in Croatia as well as accompanying foreign-born spouses and/or immediate family members. All visitors will need to bring a U.S. passport or foreign government-issued photo ID in order to access the building.

The American Embassy is located near the airport at Thomasa Jeffersona 2, Zagreb. Directions to the Embassy are available at http://zagreb.usembassy.gov.

Doors will open at 4:30 p.m. Please allow extra time for security screening on arrival. Cell phones, cameras and any other electronic equipment will not be allowed inside the Embassy. Parking will be available in the Embassy visitors' parking lot and on the street in front of the Embassy.

Please confirm your attendance by email at ZagrebACS@state.gov or by phone at (01) 661-2276 or 661-2345.

We hope to see you there!
